

Petition to the Government of Canada

We, the undersigned residents of Canada

Wish to draw to the attention of the Government of Canada the following:

- Whereas the alleged abuses of human rights and the degradation of the environment by Canadian mining companies is a violation of the principles of fundamental justice and,
- Whereas the petitioners feel that it is the duty of Parliament to hold Canadian companies responsible for their activities when operating in foreign jurisdictions

Therefore the petitioners humbly call upon the Government of Canada to do the following:

- 1) Create effective laws regarding Corporate Social Responsibility
- 2) Consent to the expeditious passage of Bill C-300
